Physician Practice & Clinic Assessment

HealthTech offers a variety of consulting services related to provider clinics and employed physician practices. Many healthcare institutions have begun employing physicians or purchasing existing practices.

HealthTech can assist organizations by improving the integration of these practices into the health system structure, stemming financial losses, improving operational performance and enhancing patient access to services.

Our offered services include:

- Assessment of clinic operations to include:
  - staffing productivity with benchmarks
  - patient access
  - business and clinical workflows
  - front office financial practices
  - clinical facilities and ancillary support
- Practice governance
- Hospital / Physician organizational alignment (includes structural and organizational recommendations)
- Physician compensation review (business-level review of compensation models)
- Implementation services
